LABOR FRAMING FOR LEGISLATION

Leaders In Conference With Several Members of Congress

BLOW TO CLOSED SHOP

Poindexter Antistrike Bill to be First Object of Attack—Formal Statement Issued

Washington, Dec. 18.—Steps to offer stiff opposition to further attacks in Congress on organized labor were reported to have been considered yesterday at a meeting between members of Congress and representatives of organized labor. One of the first objects sought is defeat of the Poindexter Antistrike bill, which slipped through the Senate yesterday, but held up by Senator La Follette's subsequent notice of a motion to reconsider.

Senator Frances, of Maryland, was among those who attended the meeting yesterday. Among others present were Senator La Follette, Walsh, of Massachusetts, and Norris, of Nebraska. The meeting was held in the office of William Johnston, president of the International Machinists' Union. In addition to Johnston, labor's representatives included W. G. Lee, of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and W. S. Carter, of the Brotherhood of Firemen.

In the discussion of the Poindexter bill it developed that labor leaders regard the fight for the Poindexter bill as part of a nation-wide movement to establish the open shop throughout the country. They link the sentiment in Washington against strikes with such developments as the testimony of President Grace, of the Bethlehem Corporation, that his concern has refused to sell fabricated steel to concerns employing union men.

The fight against the movement for the open shop, the labor people believe will have support from some members of Congress, who believe in the open shop principle. The reason for this belief of the labor leaders is that they hold the present activity for the open shop to be in effect a drive against unionism in any form—not merely insistence upon the right of a nonunion laborer to get a job.

After the conference yesterday in Johnston's office he gave out a statement in which he said, in part:

"The conference grew out of the fact that the leaders of the railroad labor organizations were meeting at this time in Washington to discuss various problems and the time was thought to be opportune for a general discussion of the entire legislative situation.

"In the course of the discussion suggestions were made by several of those present that a bureau of legislative information should be established to act with the liberal members of the House and Senate. This suggestion was emphasized by the passage of the Poindexter bill prohibiting strikes in interstate commerce because opponents of this measure had not been properly warned that it was to be taken up by the Senate.

"No definite action was taken by the conference, but it was agreed that later meetings would be held, at which plans for bringing about a better coordination of the liberal forces of the country with their representatives in the House and Senate would be formulated. As soon as anything of concrete character has been agreed upon by the conference announcement will be made in due course, together with the names of those present."

Senator France, when asked about the meeting, said:

"It was a private gathering, and I am not at liberty to discuss what was considered. However, I feel free to say that the purpose of the meeting was not to arrange opposition to specific legislation against organized labor, but to consider future legislation in which all liberals are interested."

"Was the Poindexter bill considered?"

"It was not on the program for consideration, but was mentioned incidentally."

U. S. Population 117,857,509 Corrected Census Shows

The total population of the United States consists of 117,857,509 persons, 12,148,738 of whom are located in Alaska and the outlying islands and other dependencies, according to a final analysis of all census figures made public here yesterday.

The population of continental United States is 105,708,771, a gain of 25,663 over the preliminary figures made public October 7. Since 1910 the continental population has increased 13,736,505 or 14.9 per cent as opposed to an increase of 21 per cent during the preceding decade.

The decrease in the rate of growth for the country as a whole is mainly due to the almost complete cessation of immigration for more than five years, and in some degree to the epidemic of influenza and the casualties in the war.

California shows a greater increase in population during the past ten years than any other State. The 1920 census shows a population of 3,426,681, as opposed to 2,377,549 in 1910, a growth of 44.1 per cent.

The final figures for New York State show a population of 10,384,829 an increase of 1,271,215 or 13.9 per cent over 1910.

The population of Illinois is 6,485,280, an increase of 846,689, or 15 per cent over 1910; Indiana 2,930,390, an increase of 229,514, or 8.5 per cent; Michigan 3,668,412 as opposed to 2,810,173, an increase of 858,239, or 30.5 per cent.

Massachusetts now has 3,852,356 as against 3,366,416 in 1910, an increase of 485,940, or 14.4 per cent; Georgia 2,895,832, as opposed to 2,609,121, an increase of 286,711, or 11 per cent.

The population of the outlying dependencies is given as follows:

Alaska, 54,899; American Samoa, 8,056; Guam, 13,275; Hawaii 255,912; Panama Canal Zone, 22,858; Porto Rico, 1,229,809; military and naval, etc., service abroad, 117,288; Philippine Islands, 10,350,640; Virgin Islands, 26,051.

Sees 1920 Booze Withdrawals As Exceeding Needs

Almost three times as much liquor was withdrawn from government bonded warehouses during the present year as could be used for legitimate purposes under the Volstead law, according to figures given to the House Ways and Means Committee by Prohibition Commissioner John F. Kramar yesterday.

Withdrawals totaled the remarkable figure of 29,200,000 gallons, or more than a quart for every man, woman and child in the United States at the present time only 40,000,000 gallons remain in storage, Kramar said.

Forged permits, the commissioner testified, have proved the most effective illegitimate means of obtaining liquor from bonded warehouses.

At this rate of withdrawals, suggested Representative Bacharach, Republican, of New Jersey, the remaining amount is only sufficient to last for two years.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS.

The meetings are interesting and instructive, as the women expect gradually to assume a share of the city government, and are studying to be in a position to do their part in the work incidental to the betterment of the city, particularly with regards to the schools.

At the meeting on December 27. Charles H. Callahan, commissioner of revenue, will talk on "How The Taxes Are Raised," and the city health officer, Dr. Louis E. Foulks, will give a talk on the work of the health department.

CROOKS TO GET LIFE --HIGHWAY ROBBERY

Two Judges Suggest Drastic Methods to Curb Crime

ONE 20 YEAR SENTENCE

Vigilance Committee of Jewelers Will be Formed if Police Don't Act Quickly Say Silverware Men.

New York, Dec. 18.—Life sentences for highway robbers, to be imposed as swiftly as possible after the criminals are arrested is the remedy for the unprecedented crime wave sweeping this city proposed yesterday by Judges Rosalsky and McIntyre, of the Court of General Sessions. Both expressed themselves as believing that such steps were necessary to curb criminal forces here.

In declining to accept a lesser plea from a man indicted for robbery, Judge Rosalsky said:

"In these days, when so many serious crimes are being committed, I will not take any lesser plea. My judgment is that the criminals of New York are challenging our civilization, and we have got to apply the power of justice and let them know they cannot run riot here—they are doing it.

"It does seem to me that the only way to curb the criminal forces in this community is to organize a posse of some kind and lie in wait for them and let us get them. Let us blot them out of society for the longest time possible.

"In my opinion every man convicted of robbery should be sentenced to imprisonment for life, because a highwayman is a potential murderer. I do not feel justified in taking a reduced plea in this case. We will lay this man, and if he is found guilty he will have to suffer the consequences. If innocent, let him be honorably acquitted."

In another part of General Sessions Judge McIntyre also declared that the time has come when relentless war must be waged on highwaymen. In imposing a sentence of twenty years on George Vasser, twenty-two, of 152 Park row, convicted of highway robbery, Judge McIntyre said:

"The men committing hold-ups in this city are not New Yorkers. This city is a magnet at the present time for all the crooks of the universe. It appears, daily dallying with them is useless. When caught red handed they should be sent to prison for life.

"You are a type of the hold-up man who is running amuck in this city.

"You come from out-of-town, live at a Bowery lodging house, sleep all day, and go out at night hunting for prey. The courts will have no consideration for men of your kind."

Vasser was convicted of holding up Gaiano La Baur, a confectioner of 59 Main street, Brooklyn, October 19, at Stanton street and Bowery. At the point of a revolver, he is said to have robbed La Baur of a watch and $20, and when La Baur put up a fight to protect himself Vasser knocked him senseless.

"Don't be surprised if you hear of the organization of a vigilance committee to protect the jewelers and merchants of New York," said Cleveland A. Dunn, a director of the Sterling Silver Manufacturers' Association which is conducting a separate investigation. "Our people are going to be protected, if every man in trade goes about carrying a gun.

"If you don't have more police action you must expect vigilance committees. They stopped this sort of thing in Chicago and Philadelphia and other civilized cities, but nothing is done here that might put the crooks out of business or even embarrass them in their operations. We have a right to protect ourselves, and our organization is ready to take drastic measures."

Tardiness of courts and the general system of dealing with captured criminals were said by a high police official yesterday to be a contributing cause to the present wave of lawlessness.

"When the police arrest a crook," said his official, "he retains a lawyer and gets released through a bondsman. In order to pay the lawyer and the bondsman he resorts to further crime while awaiting trial. Under the present system, the time of detectives is too much taken up with watching criminals out on bail. If these criminals were speedily tried and sentenced it would save the police a lot of time."

An unidentified man was held up and shot early last night a short distance from the Dyckman street station of the Interboro subway. He was taken to a hospital.

Another murder as yet unsolved and a safe-cracking job in the Seventh District Municipal Court on 125th street, were Harlem's contribution to the crime wave yesterday.

The murdered man, apparently an Italian of some means, from the quality of his clothing was discovered by May Connolly, of 209 East 107th street, lying on the sidewalk near her home with five bullet wounds in his head and body. The only clue the police have to his identity are three letters, written in Italian, which were found in his pockets. They were unsigned and the envelopes were missing.

Miss Connolly told the police she had heard five shots fired. She ran out and discovered the man's body, but did not see his assailants. He was five feet, eight inches tall, about 35 years old, and wore a gray and black striped suit, brown overcoat and cap, tanned shoes, woolen sport socks, silk shirt and necktie and a white soft collar. Detectives from the East 104th street station were assigned to the case.

The safe robbery was first thought to have involved thousands of dollars in rent money left with the court clerks in rental deposits. Later it was estimated at $3000 in Liberty Bonds and jewelry belonging to John Burns, chief clerk of the court, and his assistant, Thomas McGarrick, and Max Say.

The police think the burglars got into the court by means of a pass key. The rewiring of the safe door was evidently done by professionals. Nobody so far as could be learned heard the explosion.

GIVEN CHRISTMAS PENALTY

On the long plunge to the street the body struck and broke a flagpole at the third floor.

Mr. Gambier's home was in Summit, N. J.

Hale, chairman of the legislative committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, which was given yesterday before the Senate Finance Committee.

LIFE SENTENCES URGED FOR ROBBERS BY JUDGE

Boston, Mass., Dec. 18.—Men convicted of robbery should be given life sentences, Judge Dubuque said in the Superior Court yesterday, adding that he had in the past imposed such sentences.

"Robbery stands next to murder in seriousness. Conditions are getting more serious and in large cities it has become unsafe for a man to walk at night," the court declared. "The barbarism of these hold-ups knows no respect for law, morals or order. If I had my way I would send every man convicted of robbery

DUBLIN CASTLE OFFICER KILLED

Police Raid City After Inspector Is Shot Down

BRITISH FORTIFY

Monasteries Raided, and MacSwiney Chaplain is Made Prisoner—Truce Reported—Wants Envoy to Erin.

Dublin, Dec. 18.—The entire business section of Dublin was raided by the police yesterday evening following the shooting of District Inspector O'Sullivan of Dublin Castle. The inspector was passing a fancy fair in Henry street, accompanied by a Miss Moore, to whom he was engaged to be married.

Inspector O'Sullivan died in a hospital an hour after the shooting. He was fired upon by two masked civilians.

In order to prevent a surprise attack at points considered vulnerable, Dublin Castle was being strongly fortified yesterday. On the northwest corner of the castle the street was closed and barbed wire barricades were placed.

Two monasteries were raided by the military and police in Dublin yesterday morning. They arrested two priests one of them Father Dominic who was chaplain to the late Terence MacSwiney. The other priest was released later, but Father Dominic was held.

Father Dominic has been staying at the Franciscan Capuchin Priory. The priest, who was arrested and subsequently released, was Father Albert, who attended Kevel Barry, a medical student, previous to his execution at Mount Joy Prison in November for his part in an attack on a military patrol and ambush.

One of the crop of rumors circulating in Dublin yesterday regarding a renewal of efforts toward peace between England and the Sinn Fein organization there emerged as interesting report that the military authorities in Ireland actually began negotiations last week for a conference to arrange a truce.

It is understood the principal initial condition the Republicans will seek to impose is amnesty for all members of the Irish Republican army, including the men which the government has been endeavoring without success to capture.

Washington Dec. 18.—A resolution which Congress would direct the president to make an appropriation for the establishment and maintenance of a diplomatic and consular service in Ireland was introduced yesterday by Representative Mason, Republican, of Illinois. The measure condemns as "savage warfare" British rule in Ireland and states "that the whole destruction of lives and property is conclusive evidence that Great Britain has lost control of the government there."

New York, Dec. 18.—The Knights of Columbus, through William J. McGinley, supreme secretary, announced last night that they had accepted the invitation of Herbert Hoover to investigate reports of starving conditions among the children of Ireland.

MRS. NATHAN OLIVER DIES

DO NOT DELAY YOUR CHRISTMAS MAILING

In spite of the preparations made by the postal authorities for handling a big increase in the parcel post business, the reports indicate only a slight advance over normal. Last year on the fifteenth of December the volume of mail had grown fifty per cent. One explanation of this is that the people have neglected the "mail early" slogan of the department. In order to make assurance double sure, the postoffice sends out a second appeal to its patrons not to delay until the last moment.

This is so reasonable and so business like that it should be heeded. We are assured that even if the business should not be as heavy as last year delays are dangerous. "A great volume of parcel post dumped into the various ofices just before Christmas," we are told, "would cause serious congestion." Bad weather conditions and delayed train movements could easily swamp the service and cause general dissatisfaction and disappointment. Last year the arrangements in the local postoffice were excellent, and the bulk of the mail was promptly delivered. This was due partly to the co-operation of the public. Without that assistance there can be no assurance of the right kind of service.

A word to the wise should be sufficient. Do your Christmas mailing at once.

Shipbuilders to Finish Work on Two Transports by February

Philadelphia, Dec. 18.—From the high water mark of 36,000 the Hog Island shipyard force of workers has been reduced to 3,500, and in about a month these men also will be gone. There still are at the yard four ships, all transports, being outfitted for sea. One, the Marne, was on a trial trip yesterday and is about ready to be turned over to the government. With good weather the last transport is due to be completed January 18 and the great yard will have been turned over to the government by February by the American International Shipbuilding Corporation, which operates the plant.

SAYS WIFE FOUND $150,000 IN TAXI

Gary, Ind., Dec. 18.—Publication here yesterday of a story concerning disputes between Charles S. Jagger, Herman Faber, a drygoods merchant, and Justice of the Peace Benjamin L Laube, over the ownership of several thousand dollars worth of United States certificates of indebtedness, brought to light the fact that Jagger had nearly $150,000 of the certificates, which he said his wife had found, loosely folded, in a Chicago taxicab last March.

Jagger said he had vainly advertised in Chicago and New York papers in an effort to find the owner of the certificates. He charged that Faber had obtained three $10,000 bonds from Mrs. Jagger on the ground that he wanted to examine them. Jagger said also he had given a $5,000 certificate to the justice of the peace, who was investigating it with a view to finding the owner.

Faber and Laube, in statements last night, declared the certificates had been given to them by Jagger with a request that they be cashed. Laube said that Jagger told him he would pay a certain amount to handle the cashing of a $10,000 United States certificate of indebtedness "I accepted his proposition," said Laube, "and obtained a loan of the bond at the First National Bank of Gary and gave the money to Jagger."

President A. E. Schaaf of the bank confirmed Laube's statement. When Laube, according to Mr. Schaaf, presented the certificate, the bank investigated and learned from the Federal reserve bank in Chicago that it was not listed as a missing or stolen certificate. It was numbered 7,682, and was papable "to bearer."

ASKS U. S. TO PROBE STEEL LABOR FIGHT

New York, Dec. 18.—Samuel Untermyer, chief counsel for the legislative committee investigating building graft, issue da statement yesterda yrecommending that evidence of "interference by steel fabricators and iron erectors in the erection of structural iron and steel" should be turned over to Federal officials.

"Such proof should be forwarded to the United States district attorney and the special grand jury for such action as they see fit to take, as to what would appear to be a flagrant violation of both State and interstate laws," he said.

Untermyer referred to testimony that manufacturers had refused to sell steel to New York builders unless it was erected under the open shop system and that this practice was being extended to other cities.

RABBIT'S FOOT BLAMED FOR THIEF'S LONG TERM

Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Dec. 18.—"That old rabbit's foot was to blame," said Leroy Green, burglar and ex-convict, as he cast it aside while being taken to Sing Sing Prison yesterday, after County Judge Young, at White Plains, had sentenced him to an indeterminate sentence of ten to nineteen years and six months in the State prison for robbing the country mansion of David L. Luke, a millionaire resident of Tarrytown.

DON'T WASTE TIME

It's a waste of time to experiment with linimepts and plasters when you have a dull, throbbing backache or sharp, stabbing twings. Get after the cause! Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this.

William Dawson, blacksmith, 806 Duke street, Alexandria says: "Before I started using Doan's Kidney Pills I had rubbed my back with liniments and taken different remedies up anything and I had to take hold of something to help me straighten up. Mornings my back felt as though it were broken. Sharp, shooting pains would catch me, and I got so I thought thought I would have to give up. Finally, through the recommendation of a friend, I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, which I bought at Summers' Drug Store. Doan's soon convinced me they were the remedy I needed and before long my back felt so strong I could shoe horses all day and not feel a bit worse for the strain." (Above statement given April 13, 1915).

Lasting Results

On March 14, 1919 Mr. Dawson added: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills gave me has proven permanent. I can't say too much for Doan's."
